Dear Mr. Scott Rosmarin,

I am off duty today. But, I wanted to contact you as soon as possible before I return to my office on tomorrow, Tues., Oct. 17, 2017. This is to follow up on my email communication sent to you on Fri., Oct. 13, 2017 regarding EPA review of the lead risk assessment testing done at your property on Sept.. 11, 2017.

Based on a brief conversation I had today, Oct. 16, 2017, with Mr. Demian Ellis, EPA has analyzed the tax returns you provided in support of Camp Rosmarin's inability to pay assertion.

EPA is anxious to speak with you via a teleconference call to discuss the testing results, and more importantly, the results of the ability to pay analysis EPA conducted using the information from Camp Rosmarin's tax returns.

Notwithstanding my previous email communication sent on Oct. 13, 2017, we recommend that you hold off on taking any steps to obtain additional lead testing or spend additional costs. We will elaborate further when the settlement conference call is held. Thank you for your continued cooperation.

Sincerely,

Melva J. Hayden
